

WM. ZINK &amp; SON

Carpet, Oil Cloths,
Window Shades,
Parlor and Chamber
FURNITURE!

Which they offer at the lowest prices, COB. HARTKE AND 125 STS.

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.

During the eleven years I have been practicing in Wheeling I have administered gas to over seven thousand persons with perfect safety, and in every case with entire satisfaction to myself and patients.

Success of
LOW PRICES.

JUST OPENED

A FRESH STOCK OF

Black Silks,
Colored Silks,
Summer Silks.

The Best Values in the Market.

G. E. STIFEL & CO.,

1065 MAIN ST.

Prints, Muslins & Towelings.

AS CHEAP AS YOU WANT THEM.

I. BLUM & BRO.

Velvets, Satins,
BLACK AND COL'D FRINGES

At the LOWEST PRICES ALWAYS, at

I. BLUM & BRO'S.

YOU WILL FIND

Goods Marked Down

AT THE

LOWEST PRICES.

BY CALLING ON

I. BLUM & BRO.,

1104 MAIN STREET.

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

New Advertisements.

Prints, Muslins, etc.—I. Blum & Bro.

head of local.

For Cincinnati—Steamer Andes.

Public Sale.

Step-Ladders—Nesbitt & Bro.

Nodders.

American Baking Powder.

To Whom It May Concern.

For Rent—Room.

Budke & Co.—Merchant Tailors.

Roast Pig Lunch.

Wanted—Agents.

List of Letters.

Thermometer Record.—The following shows the range of the thermometer, as observed at Schnepf's drug store, Opera House corner:

4. M. 52. 6. 54. 8. 56. 10. 58.

PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—A. M.

For Tennessee and Ohio Valley, warmer, southerly to cold northerly winds, with rising barometer and partly cloudy weather.

For Lower Lakes, north east to north winds, slightly higher pressure, stationary or lower temperature, partly cloudy weather and occasional rains.

A Beautiful Assortment of Silver Lizards and Snakes, just received.

JACOB W. GRUBB, Jeweler,

Washington Hall Corner.

THE BAZAAR.—Go to the Bazaar for Fancy and White Goods, and save money.

109 MAIN STREET.

A sumptuous feast, from 12 to 2 o'clock, for 25c, at Laramie's to-day.

JUMPED FROM A LADDER.—Mr. Henry

Kraft, of Centre Wheeling, met with a painful accident on Saturday. He was at work on a ladder in his garden, when the ladder broke, and in order to save himself from a fall he jumped to one side, slighting upon his feet and severely spraining one of his ankles.

THE BELTON FIRE.—We are in receipt of a postal from Mr. H. S. White, of Belton, Missouri, dated April 12, stating that on Friday last, Mr. White places his loss at $150, and adds: "The prompt and efficient assistance of all my workmen and others saved a large lot of staves and other property. The wind was in our favor."

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—The following transfers of real estate were admitted to record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, Saturday:

Deed made April 12, 1879, by Louis

Betsch to August Warneke, for 16 acres,

1 rod and 24 perches of land in Richland district, with all buildings and improvements thereon; and also the personal property, consisting of horses, cows, wagons, blacksmith tools, household and kitchen furniture, farming implements, etc.; $10.

Deed made April 12, 1879, by August Yaeger, trustee for Caroline Warneke, to Louis Warneke, for the property noted in

EASTER SERVICES.

Observance of Easter in the Churches

Yesterday.

The Easter festival, held in commemoration of the resurrection of our Saviour, was observed in several of our churches yesterday, and reports of the special services in these churches may be found below.

Easter is a movable feast, occurring at any time between March 21 and April 25,

and by it the other movable feasts throughout the ecclesiastical year are regulated.

In the early church this festival lasted for some days, and catechumens were then usually admitted to the rite of baptism.

At present, its celebration is confined, in the Church of England, to Easter-evening,

Easter Sunday, and the Monday and

Tuesday in Easter Week. In the Roman Catholic Church it is a time of enjoyment, because the restrictions imposed during the preceding period of Lent are no longer to be observed. Some ascribe its institution to the apostles, but the more general opinion is, that it was first observed by their immediate successors, about 68. The Council of Arles, in 314, and the Council of Nicea, in 325, decided that the day for keeping this festival should be the first Sunday after the calendar by Gregory XIII., in 1582, the first Sunday after the full moon immediately following the 21st of March, was fixed as the day for observing the festival.

THE ENGLISH EVANGELICAL LUTHERANS

had a day of special interest and religious joy at their place of worship, adjoining the postoffice building, yesterday. The anniversary of the Saviour's resurrection was observed with solemn and becoming worship. At a quarter before ten o'clock Rev.

Mr. Croll conducted a prayer service with the assembling congregation, which was followed by the regular morning worship, at which baptism was administered to both children and adults, and a number of persons admitted to membership by the ancient and beautiful rite of confirmation.

The singing was altogether congregational, old familiar tunes being used, and every one present seemed entering into the singing with the spirit and the understanding. Also, the Holy Communion was administered to one of the largest congregations the chapel has yet had in it; and altogether the membership and visiting friends felt it a season of true refreshment.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Lutheran people are doing their share of the work of the day. The Lord's Day; they are doing at least as much as they can. The school was attended by scholars and teachers, and a number of visitors were also present; among them Rev. Long, the State Bible

Agent, who added interest to the occasion by his presence, and touching address.

The study of the International Lesson was dispensed with and the time occupied in singing a number of beautiful hymns, and learning. Through the sense of vision the truths of salvation commemorated yesterday. Mr. Croll and Mr. Long directed the attention of the school to the beautiful picture which Mr. Zevely had put upon the blackboard. It represented a cross twined with calla lilies, lilies of the valley and other suggestive flowers. At the center of the cross was a dove, emblem of the Spirit. At the base, on either side, was a monument significantly speaking of death. But the glow of death is dispelled by the fact announced above and crowning the whole.

"He is RISEN." The execution manifested both taste and talent, and drew forth many words of praise.

A PASTOR'S FAREWELL.

The sermon in the evening was preached by the pastor from the text (Mark 16:7)

"Be not afraid; ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified; he is risen; he is not here; behold the place where they laid him." It was appropriate to the day and filled with the important truths of the

THE WHEELING DAILY INTELLIGENCER, MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1879.

Observance of Easter in the Churches

Yesterday.

The Easter festival, held in commemoration of the resurrection of our Saviour,

was observed in several of our churches

yesterday, and reports of the special services in these churches may be found

below.

Easter is a movable feast, occurring at

any time between March 21 and April 25,

and by it the other movable feasts through-

out the ecclesiastical year are regulated.

In the early church this festival lasted for

some days, and catechumens were then

usually admitted to the rite of baptism.

At present, its celebration is confined, in the Church of England, to Easter-evening,

Easter Sunday, and the Monday and

Tuesday in Easter Week. In the Roman

Catholic Church it is a time of enjoyment, because the restrictions imposed

during the preceding period of Lent

are no longer to be observed. Some

ascribe its institution to the apostles, but

the more general opinion is, that it was

first observed by their immediate successors, about 68. The Council of Arles, in

314, and the Council of Nicea, in 325,

decided that the day for keeping this

festival should be the first Sunday after the

calendar by Gregory XIII., in 1582, the

first Sunday after the full moon immediately following the 21st of March, was

fixed as the day for observing the festival.

THE ENGLISH EVANGELICAL LUTHERANS

had a day of special interest and religious

joy at their place of worship, adjoining the

postoffice building, yesterday. The anniversary of the Saviour's resurrection was

observed with solemn and becoming wor-

ship. At a quarter before ten o'clock Rev.

Mr. Croll conducted a prayer service with the assembling congregation, which was followed by the regular morning worship,

at which baptism was administered to

both children and adults, and a number of

persons admitted to membership by the

ancient and beautiful rite of confirmation.

The singing was altogether congregational,

old familiar tunes being used, and every

one present seemed entering into the

singing with the spirit and the understand-

ing. Also, the Holy Communion was

administered to one of the largest congregations the chapel has yet had in it; and

altogether the membership and visiting

friends felt it a season of true refreshment.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Lutheran people are doing their

share of the work of the day. The

Lord's Day; they are doing at least

as much as they can. The school was attended by scholars and teachers, and a number of visitors were also present; among

them Rev. Long, the State Bible

Agent, who added interest to the occasion

by his presence, and touching address.

The study of the International Lesson was

dispensed with and the time occupied in

singing a number of beautiful hymns, and

learning. Through the sense of vision the

truths of salvation commemorated yester-

day. Mr. Croll and Mr. Long directed the

attention of the school to the beautiful

picture which Mr. Zevely had put upon

the blackboard. It represented a cross twined with calla lilies, lilies of

the valley and other suggestive

flowers. At the center of the cross was